Are you curious about what fly fishing is all about?
Are you confused about what “rigging” means? This is your chance to find out!

SVTU, in partnership with the Rockville Chapter of IWLA, is holding a “Fly Fishing 101—Fly Fishing Basics” course at the Jim Berrier Memorial Lake, located at 12057 Clopper Road*.

Come join us for a no-cost afternoon where we will be teaching the basics of fly fishing. We will offer four hours of social-distanced lessons to introduce beginners to the sport. We will have beginning casting, advanced casting, rigging equipment for different conditions and a demonstration of techniques when fishing on a stream. The instructor will demonstrate both dry fly and nymph techniques.

You MUST register to attend!

Masks and good health are required

We have a limit of 20 students, so register today!

Please register by October 15 for this informative afternoon!

Due to COVID, NO walk-ins will be allowed!

If your name is not on the list, you will be asked to leave.

We have a limited number of fly rod outfits so please let us know if you will be bringing your own equipment.

*Some navigation systems can't find this location. If you are proceeding west on Clopper, after the Seneca Creek State Park entrance there are three yellow  signs on the right-hand side of the road, and immediately after the third one is a YELLOW rock. The entrance is right before Great Seneca Creek between the the yellow rock and the guardrail. If you cross the stream, you've gone too far.
